

Annual Reunion at Madurai

27th, 28th, December 2013

Giving adds meaning to life. Giving brings more joy to the giver than to the recipient. Life is an echo. What you send out comes back to you. Give a smile to someone you meet and you'll receive a smile in return. Give your loving service to all people. People by and large don't bother how knowledgeable you are, but how caring you are. Giving gives you the satisfaction of having lived your life well. The more we give, the more we receive and the more we become. Thanks a lot for your generous contribution towards the growth of your Alma Mater. We will be starting the construction of the school building soon. It includes Office room, Staff room, Labs, Library, Class rooms which can accommodate even the plus two.

Gratitude, the mother of all virtues- a thankful heart is not only the greatest virtue, but the parent of all other virtues. "Gratitude is a vaccine, an antitoxin and an antiseptic." Thanks for this lovely get together, for all that you do for the growth of S.H.Y. your second home and above all for your love and care. The gates of S.H.Y. are always open to you. You are most welcome any time and any day.

May God bless you and your family in the coming year with peace, happiness and prosperity.. Thank you

Sr.Nancy.

Sr. Louis along with Mother Bernard and late Sr. Imelda, bravely left her home land to serve the cause of Jesus on the quaint Shevaroy Hills. Can we ever forget the Irish Jig among other things that you taught us? I request Sr. Louis to enlighten us with her words.

Sr. Louis spoke on the loyalty of S.H.Y. Past Students anywhere in the world and narrated her thrilling experience at the U.S. airport when the S.H.Y. Old Girls sang the School Song 'with never a whisper of hopelessness...' catching everybody's attention to let their teacher go across to them. And they did it!!!

I request our senior member, Mrs. Nirmala J. to hand over the Madurai and Dindigul S.P.S.A. members' humble contribution of Rupees One Lakh and Seventy Five Thousand to Sr. Anice through Sr. Catherine, our President.

We look forward to the setting up of a 'Smart Lab Classroom' in S.H.Y., complete with the necessary Smart Board, Projector etc. which will enrich the learning experience of the S.H.Y. Girls. Sr. Anice expressed her warmest thanks and appreciation to the Host members for their generosity and nobility. Sister promised that the proposed Smart Lab will be set up on completion of the new classrooms.
